

Ay up me duck!

Free

Ay up me duck day returns for 2018 on Friday 3 August, 10am - 2pm

An activity trail around Swadlincote Town Centre to celebrate all things South Derbyshire

- This year's theme is World War One
- Have a go at playing some old time games on The Delph
 - Grow your own veg at the Library
 - Make bricks with the Townscape project team
- Visit Adult Education for a peg people workshop, weaving a pigeon carrier
- Practice your marching skills at Sharpe's Pottery, and make a plane on the assembly line

Swadlincote TIC will be on The Delph market square with Hook-a-Duck and other games
Collect your Passport from The Delph and gather stamps on the way round to be entered into a prize draw

Ay Up Me Duck Hunt – Join in the duckling hunt, great fun for all ages – track down and find what all the ducklings hiding in shops around Swadlincote are saying. Then return your completed forms to the Tourist Information Centre to be in the prize draw for some fantastic treats!
You can take part in the hunt FREE of charge anytime from 3rd – 17th August

Further information: 01283 222 848

Swadlincote Tourist Information Centre, Sharpe's Pottery Museum, West Street, Swadlincote, DE11 9DG

