3.0 Matters arising from the above minutes.

   3.1. Ex 6.1. Norman Ireland informed the meeting that the Parish Council was to circulate a leaflet to all households in September to assess the feeling in the village reference keeping the public toilets open. He also stated that there had been some improvement in the parking situation near the Leisure Centre although some drivers were still parking and causing an obstruction.

4.0 Crime Statistics.

   4.1. No incidents to report and nothing from our Beat Police.

5.0 Safer Neighbourhoods Meeting

5.1. No report available.

6.0 Any Other Business

6.1. A general discussion took place regarding the future of the Watch. Due to the very low level of interest currently in the Watch, the consideration may have to be taken to discontinue the Watch in its current form. Further discussions will have to take place and a way forward agreed by next year’s AGM.

7.0 Items for Next Safer Neighbourhoods Meeting

7.1. No items considered.

There being no further business the meeting closed at 7.25 pm.
