4.1 While nothing was known to the meeting, it was hoped to have the latest Police area report in time for post meeting notes to be added.

Post meeting note:- A sneak-in burglary occurred on Main Street, Etwall, on Saturday 9th May around 6.30pm. The male offender entered through an unlocked rear door and quickly took a leather handbag, an iPad, a Mac computer and a professional quality Cannon digital camera. He is described as being white, around 27-years-old, with short dark hair, wearing jeans and trainers. He left in a large maroon coloured vehicle thought to be an Audi. If you have any information or saw anything suspicious contact the Volume Crime Team on 101, quoting crime number 19453/15.

4.2 Steve Read reported having to remonstrate with and deter six or so youths apparently bent on mindless vandalism in St Helen’s church graveyard. Our PCSO, Kerry Waite, was informed of this all too common event with names of some of the culprits passed to the police.
